For substantially the reasons set forth in the government's letter dated October 14, 2020 (Doc. #55), defendant Aminatta Sirleaf's motion for expungement of record (Doc. #51) is DENIED.

On August 4, 2008, defendant was sentenced to twelve months and one day on her guilty plea to conspiracy to provide contraband to a federal inmate, followed by three years of supervised release. Defendant completed service of her prison sentence, and on September 10, 2010, she was discharged early from supervised release. Defendant's conviction was never dismissed, and she does not contend it was otherwise invalid.

The Court lacks jurisdiction to expunge, on equitable grounds, a valid criminal conviction for which the sentence has long since been completed. See United States v. Doe, 833 F.3d 192, 197 (2d Cir. 2016).

Accordingly, the motion is DENIED.

Chambers will mail a copy of this order to defendant at the following address:
